

DIMENSIONS OF CANNABIS FOR MEDICINAL AND RESEARCH PURPOSES

Wednesday 6 May 2020, University of Malta, Valletta Campus

An event designed to explore the pharmacological properties of derived and synthetic cannabinoids, research on therapeutic uses of cannabis, the regulatory sciences landscape, quality requirements for cultivation, the prescribing framework and controversies in the field of medicinal cannabis.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Professor Roger Pertwee
University of Aberdeen, Scotland

Recognised for outstanding contributions, including the discovery of endocannabinoids and the characterization of a CB₁ receptor allosteric site

Professor Robert Nistico
University of Rome "Tor Vergata", Rome

Principal Investigator at the European Brain Research Institute in Rome and Member of the European Medicines Agency Committee for Orphan Medicinal Products

Targeted to professionals with interest in cannabis for medicinal and research purposes, including healthcare professionals, academics, and representatives from industry, clinical, scientific and regulatory operations.

Registration Fee by 21.04.2020

€120

09:30 am - 12:00 pm followed by a networking lunch

Kindly confirm attendance via the online registration form:

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSc1kZgomjIzRdfNtQJm09yDH6Uz50sOFRo2Y4Et5BO8UcrNYA/formResponse>